MESSAGE ARTICLE – DECEMBER 2016*Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.*HANUKKAH IN A “LATKA”

Hanukkah -- the eight-day festival of light that begins on the eve of the 25th of the Jewish month of Kislev -- celebrates the triumph of light over darkness, of purity over adulteration, of spirituality over materiality. More than twenty-one centuries ago, the Holy Land was ruled by the Seleucids (Syrian-Greeks), who sought to forcefully Hellenize the people of Israel.

Against all odds, a small band of faithful Jews defeated one of the mightiest armies on earth, drove the Greeks from the land, reclaimed the Holy Temple in Jerusalem and rededicated it to the service of God. When they sought to light the Temple's m'norah (the seven branched candelabrum), they found only a single cruse of olive oil that had escaped contamination by the Greeks; miraculously, the one-day supply burned for eight days, until new oil could be prepared under conditions of ritual purity.

To commemorate and publicize these miracles, the sages instituted the festival of Hanukkah. At the heart of the festival is the nightly lighting of the Hanukkiah – the special eight branched candelabrum used on Hanukkah; a single flame on the first night, two on the second evening, and so on till the eighth night of Hanukkah, when all eight lights are kindled. On Hanukkah we also add the Hallel and Al HaNissim in our daily prayers to offer praise and thanksgiving to God for "delivering the strong into the hands of the weak, the many into the hands of the few... the wicked into the hands of the righteous."

Hanukkah customs include eating foods fried in oil -- latkes (potato pancakes) and sufganiot (doughnuts); playing with the dreidel (a spinning top on which are inscribed the Hebrew letters nun, gimmel, hei and shin, an acronym for Nes Gadol Hayah Sham, "a great miracle happened there"); and the giving tz'dakah and Hanukkah gelt, gifts of money, to children.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR CANDLE LIGHTING AT HOME*Candle lighting times

- Except for before and after Shabbat light Hanukkah flames [solid, or oil and wicks] as soon after dark as possible.
- Hanukkah flames must burn for ½ hour [on Shabbat for 1½ hours].
- Before Shabbat:
  1. First light Hanukkah flames that can burn for 1½ hours.

2. Then light Shabbat candles at least 18 minutes before sunset.

- After Shabbat:

In the Synagogue, light the Hanukkah flames before Havdallah.

At home, light the Hanukkah flames after Havdallah.

Setting up the Hanukkiah

1. In our home we have both an electric Hanukkiah – this does not take the place of the flame Hanukkiah – which we place in our window and a flame Hanukkiah which we place on our kitchen countertop.
2. For our inside flame Hanukkiah, we start at the right end, placing the lights from right to left.
3. For our window electric Hanukkiah, we place the lights from left to right so that from the outside it will look as if they were being placed from right to left as we do for our flame Hanukkiah inside our home.
4. Place the additional light called the Shammash, or working light or flame, into its distinct location.

Lighting and B'rachot

- For the flame Hanukkiah, light the Shammash first.
- Before lighting the other flames recite the B'rachot
  1. Baruch attah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olom asher kidd'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadklik neir shel Hanukkah.
  2. Baruch attah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olom she'asa nissim la'voteinu bayamim hahaeim baz'man hazeh.

On the first night only add:

3. Baruch attah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olom shehehyanu v'kiyy'manu v'higgi'anu laz'man hazeh.
- Use the shammash to light the first [left most] flame.
  - Proceeding from left to right, use the shammash to light the remaining flames.
    1. While reciting the prayer haneirot halalu if reciting from memory.
    2. Before reciting the prayer haneirot halalu if reading from a text.
  - Chant Ma'oz Tzur.

President's Message      December 2016

It is hard to believe that fall is soon going to turn to winter. As the leaves fall to the ground Hanukkah comes into view. Here at Madison Hanukkah is a busy time. We begin with a pre-Hanukkah dinner on Friday, December 9th at 6:15 pm. These dinners are always delicious and feature the warmth of fellowship. If you missed our last dinner it is not too late to make reservations for this one. The dinner is followed by our Hanukkah concert featuring our Youth Chorus led by Arlene Kane. We are in for a treat. Services that evening will be led by the Youth Chorus. Sunday, December 17th at 8 pm is our Vodka and Latka dance, complete with DJ, where our 60/40 raffle winner will be announced. Then on Saturday, December 24th at 5:30 pm we have our annual community Hanukkah lighting in the "triangle". All of these events are described more completely in flyers or on our website, madisonjc.org, which you ought to check frequently.

We appreciate the hard work put in for our November events. Sisterhood dinner and Shabbat services were wonderful. There was a successful Bingo night and a lively book discussion on The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah.

This month's "spotlight" falls on Mario Gottesmann who, with his wife Teresa, has been a member of Madison for over 30 years. His story is a fascinating one. I'm sure many of us have wondered how he came to live in Argentina and then the United States.

Mario's father emigrated to Argentina from Czechoslovakia in the 1920s when he saw the ominous signs in Europe. He came from a successful prominent family and had nine brothers and a sister who mostly stayed behind. Three survived the Nazi killings. He was fired from his first job in Argentina as a fisherman because he would not work on Saturdays. Mario's mother came to Argentina from Hungary through a plan organized by multimillionaire Baron Maurice de Hirsch who was a German Jewish philanthropist and founder of the Jewish Colonization Association which sponsored large scale Jewish emigration to Argentina. These emigres were set up on farms complete with animals. Mario was born and lived in the city of Buenos Aires but he spent his summers at his aunt's and uncle's farms in rural Argentina. Since his father was observant, Mario went to Y'shiva where he learned Humash and G'mara in Yiddish. Yiddish was his first language. Mario eventually became an accountant and CPA and travelled to the United States to take courses in order to advance his career. While here taking courses he taught classes and worked for a top company. He met and married one of his colleagues, Teresa, and that ended his plans to return to Buenos Aires. They bought a house in the Madison area where he still lives. They had two sons and felt they wanted to continue their Jewish traditions so they joined a nearby synagogue, Madison Jewish Center, where they have been members for all these years.

Mario recently retired after 38 years with one of the largest liquor importers where he was an auditor, then controller and eventually director of finance. We count Mario and Teresa among the valued and active shul members.

Shalom,

THE LATEST FROM SISTERHOOD

DECEMBER 2016

The annual Sisterhood Shabbat service on Friday night, November 4th was well attended and a huge success. Many thanks to Ilene Karpas for chairing, organizing and planning the program, and to Ellen Green for officiating as the Rabbi and to Arlene Kane, who served as the Cantor for the evening. Thanks to Yaffa Sapoznik and Anne Gruskin for organizing and coordinating the dinner. We would also like to thank Barbara Stein for donating the flower centerpieces and Allyson Stein for donating the beautiful dessert table and paper goods. Rachel and Jay Streitch donated the beverages. It is very much appreciated. Furthermore, thanks go to the Sisterhood members who participated in the service and assisted throughout the evening.

Maj and mingle is an ongoing activity held on Sunday mornings whenever there is a Flea Market. It is a great way to learn the game or refresh your skills, or simply enjoy a pleasant morning with friends. Check the website for future dates.

Last month's book club was led by Marlene Podell who reviewed the book, The Nightingale, by Kristin Hannah. The discussion was thought provoking and interesting. Thank you Marlene for recommending this outstanding book and leading the stimulating discussion.

Save the date for the Annual Vodka and Latka night that will be held on Saturday night, December 17th. It is always a fun night out featuring unlimited vodka tasting: in addition to latkas, varied toppings, deserts and music too! Sisterhood will be working with Social Club. Friends and family are encouraged to attend. The December Sisterhood board meeting will be held on Monday night December 19th at 7 PM with Hanukkah refreshments to follow.

January movie night will be held on Monday, January 16th. We will be showing, "Woman in Gold." Health night will be on Monday night, February 27th with a guest speaker from NAMI (National Association for Mental Illness). Also, Sisterhood is working on a fundraising project called, "Tree of Life Growing at Madison Jewish Center." Look out for flyers for all of the above events. We wish everyone a Happy Hanukkah and a very Happy and Healthy New Year! We hope to see you at our events!!

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS ----- DECEMBER 2016

The Social Club has been hard at work planning many exciting events for the next few months.

Bingo night was Saturday night, November 12th. There were many great prizes. There was even a separate room for the children to play Bingo. It was a great opportunity to socialize with friends.

The Social Club is proudly sponsoring a Share the Pot Raffle. The first prize winner will receive 40% of the total money collected. The more raffles sold the bigger the prize. The winner will be announced on Saturday night, December 17th at the Vodka and Latka celebration. You do not have to be present to win. But try to attend. It promises to be great fun. The evening's festivities are being co-sponsored with the Sisterhood.

There will be a special event on Saturday night, January 14th. We will be hosting a night of ceramics, wine, and dinner. Flyers will be sent out shortly. Join us! The Super Bowl party is on Sunday, February 5th. Please mark your calendars.

Every member of MJC is also a member of the Social Club. Please take advantage of the many opportunities to spend time with friends. Let's keep MJC as the center of Egalitarian Conservative Judaism in this part of Brooklyn.

Check our website (madisonjc.org), watch for flyers, and check the Message for further information. Reservations for all activities can be made through our email address (info@madisonjc.org).

We wish everyone a very Happy Hanukkah and a happy and healthy secular New Year.

Ilene Karpas

Parents' Association – DECEMBER 2016

Shalom Parents,

First, we want to wish you all a happy and healthy Hanukkah.

A few quick reminders: Our annual Hanukkah dinner will take place on Friday, December 9th. You are all invited to join us. It's a great way to meet other families from our Hebrew school. Immediately following our Hanukkah dinner, our Hebrew school students will perform a Hanukkah concert under the guidance of our wonderful music instructor, Arlene Kane. Attendance is mandatory for all students. Also, on December 24<sup>h</sup> at 5:30 P.M. our community Hanukkiah lighting will take place. We hope to see you there!

We want to give a big Thank You to all who participated in our Miss Chocolate cookie dough sale and to those who buy our gift cards.

We are still selling gift cards online or you can pick up an order form in the office, whichever is easier for you. Thanks again for all your support. We really appreciate it. Again, we wish you all a happy and healthy Hanukkah.

Melanie Green

The Parents' Association

PERSONALS

Dear Friends at Madison,

As many of you know, I was hospitalized the weekend before Yom Kippur. I want you to know that I am beginning to feel like myself again and that my stamina is slowly coming back – just a little too slow for my liking.

I thank haShem for my recovery progress along with my family, doctors and the medical staff at St. Francis Hospital for their support and excellent care which enabled me to join you in prayer, for at least part of the time, on Yom Kippur day.

I am also extremely grateful, thankful and deeply appreciative to you all for your outpouring of concern and your prayers and donations for my recovery.

I want to take this opportunity to wish all of you a Happy and Healthy 2017 and that we should all be blessed with the most precious of all the Lord's gifts – a safe world at Peace. Once again my most sincere thanks and appreciation to all.

Fondly,

Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.
