MESSAGE ARTICLE – NOVEMBER 2017*Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.

On November 11th we honor our veterans who served in our armed forces and remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and for the liberties and freedoms we all hold so dear. Here at Madison we will hold a special Veterans Shabbat in conjunction with our Friday Evening Service on November 10, 2017 at 7:30pm. I will be asking the veterans of our congregation to join me on the Bimah at that service as we honor their dedicated service to our country. I hope many of you will join us that evening.

Below I share with you the text of a letter that has always struck a deep chord of response within heart. It came to my attention when I watched the riveting series on the Civil War produced by documentarian Ken Burns originally broadcast in 1990.

July 14, 1861

Camp Clark, Washington

The indications are very strong that we shall move in a few days -- perhaps tomorrow. Lest I should not be able to write again, I feel impelled to write a few lines that may fall under your eye when I shall be no more...

I have no misgivings about, or lack of confidence in the cause in which I am engaged, and my courage does not halt or falter. I know how strongly American Civilization now leans on the triumph of the government, and how great a debt we owe to those who went before us through the blood and sufferings of the Revolution. And I am willing - perfectly willing - to lay down all my joys in this life, to help maintain this Government, and to pay that debt...

Sarah, my love for you is deathless. It seems to bind me with mighty cables that nothing but Omnipotence could break; and yet my love of Country comes over me like a strong wind and bears me unresistibly on with all these chains to the battlefield. The memories of the blissful moments I have spent with you come creeping over me and I feel most gratified to God and to you that I have enjoyed them so long. And hard it is for me to give them up and burn to ashes the hopes of future years, when, God willing, we might still have lived and loved together, and seen our sons grown up to honorable manhood, around us.

I have, I know, but few and small claims upon Divine Providence, but something whispers to me -- perhaps it is the wafted prayer of my little Edgar, that I shall return to my loved ones unharmed. If I do not, dear Sarah, never forget how much I loved you, and when my last breath escapes me on the battlefield, it will whisper your name. Forgive my many faults, and the many pains I have caused you. How thoughtless and foolish I have often times been! How gladly would I wash out with my tears every little spot upon your happiness...

But, O Sarah, if the dead can come back to this earth and flit unseen around those they love, I shall always be near you, in the gladdest days and in the darkest nights...always, always, and if there be a soft breeze upon your cheek, it shall be my breath, as the cool air fans your throbbing temple, it shall be my spirit passing by. Sarah do not mourn me dead; think I am gone and wait for thee, for we shall meet again.

(Major Sullivan Ballou's letter to his wife Sarah seven days before being killed at the first battle of Bull Run.)

President's Message      November 2017

Shalom All!

They say time goes by quickly when you are busy. It certainly feels like each day flies by to me. It seems like only yesterday it was summer, and the High Holidays were coming. How can it be that it's now November?

Madison Jewish Center has been a flurry of activity in the past month. The holidays were well attended and beautiful, and we have seen an increase in attendance at Friday night services and on Shabbat Saturdays. This is due in large part to our revitalized programming with Shabbat Shaboom, our Speaker Series, and our return to a delicious luncheon kiddush on Saturdays. With lunch comes additional opportunities for spiritual learning and friendship with Madison's warm congregation. In October we enjoyed a beautiful Sisterhood Shabbat Dinner prepared by our new caterer ("The Vue"), along with a Friday night service run by the ladies of Madison. We also had a delightful day trip to Atlantic City.

Our many initiatives could not come to fruition if we did not have incredible congregants who were willing to volunteer their time, efforts and talents to work on the activities described. There is always much work done by members "behind the scenes" on a regular basis, as well. Much thanks to the members who continually support Madison with their service, or have recently taken on additional tasks to keep long established programs going. This past month we sadly lost beloved members David Abels and Michael Mondschein. Working and outside responsibilities did not stop them from helping Madison Jewish Center whenever they could. With the loss of these men, and others recently who also gave so much of themselves, Madison sorely needs members to help chair committees or facilitate the activities that keep Madison a vibrant conservative synagogue in our community. We need people of all ages with all kinds of talents to fill the gaps opened by our recent losses. Please leave me a message in the office if you can give Madison some time. We can find you a task that matches your talents. Not only will you be doing a tremendous service to your shul, it will also make you feel good.

Thanks for all, Barbara

Shalom Parents,

We are once again going to be doing our

Miss Chocolate fundraiser. The sale will begin later this month, so keep a look out for it!

Last month was Sukkot and the students, under the direction of Rabbi Kane and their Hebrew School teachers, made lovely decorations for our Sukkah. After putting up their decorations, they enjoyed a pizza party in the Sukkah, reciting all the appropriate prayers, and singing some Hebrew songs.

We are still selling gift cards online or you can pick up an order form in the office, whichever is easier for you! Thanks again for all your support, we really appreciate it.

Finally, we wish you all a happy and healthy Thanksgiving!

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS ----- NOVEMBER 2017

On behalf of the Social Club, I am writing this article as we mourn the loss of our esteemed Social Club recording secretary and friend, David Abels, as well as our member Michael Mondschein. We extend our sincere condolences to the Abels and Mondschein families.

Our annual trip to Atlantic City was on Sunday, October 22nd. The day began with breakfast in the shul. Then we played bingo on the bus. The fun continued with a full day of gambling and/or shopping. The weather was great and everyone had a wonderful time. Our spring trip is scheduled for Sunday, April 22nd. Please mark your calendars.

Our vodka and latka celebration is on Saturday evening, December 9th. There will be a 60/40 raffle drawing at that time. This event is in conjunction with Sisterhood.

Wine and painting is scheduled for Saturday evening, January 20, 2018. It promises to be fun for everyone. More information will be forthcoming.

Wednesday, February 28th is our annual Purim celebration in conjunction with Sisterhood and PA. Friday evening, May 11th is the annual Social Club Shabbat. We will be enjoying a traditional dinner before the service.

Many interesting events are being discussed and planned for this year. Please let us know if you have any thoughts or ideas for future events.

Every member of MJC is also a member of the Social Club. Please take advantage of the many opportunities to spend time with friends. Let's keep MJC as the center of Egalitarian Conservative Judaism in this part of Brooklyn.

Check our website (madisonjc.org), watch for flyers, and check the Message for further information. Reservations for all activities can be made through our email address (info@madisonjc.org).

THE LATEST FROM SISTERHOOD

NOVEMBER 2017

We would like to extend our heartfelt sympathies to the families of David Abels and Michael Mondschein.

Due to inclement weather, Pizza in the Sukkah had to be held indoors. Our Sisterhood Board Meeting was well attended. Everyone enjoyed the pizza.

Our Annual Sisterhood Shabbat Dinner was also well attended. Everyone enjoyed the meal that was made by our new caterer, The Vue. We wish to thank Ilene Karpas for again chairing the services and program portion of the evening. Thank you, Rabbi Ellen Green and Cantor Arlene Kane. You both did a beautiful job. Thank you Yaffa Sapoznik, Anne Gruskin and Shelli Feldman for chairing the dinner portion of the evening. Also, thank you to the dinner committee for setting up for the evening event. We also wish to thank Allyson Stein for donating delicious dessert and coffee for the Shabbat dinner.

Save the date for our Annual Book Discussion led by our esteemed member Marlene Podell. The event will be held on Monday, November 20th. The book is The Zookeeper's Wife by Diane Ackerman. The meeting will be held at 7:00PM followed by the book discussion. Marlene will be sponsoring the refreshments.

Vodka and Latka night will be co-chaired by Sisterhood in conjunction with Social Club. The event will take place Saturday night, December 9th. A 60/40 raffle will be offered as a prize.

We wish to thank everyone who participated in the Tree of Life this year. This January 2018 the new Tree of Life will start again. If you want to be included into the January 2018 Message, please submit your names for the Tree of Life by December 10th. The names will be printed each month for the entire year of 2018. The cost will be $10 a name. Please look for the form to fill out for the names you wish to have included.

At our December 18th Sisterhood Board Meeting we will honor those members who participated in the 2017 Tree of Life. Refreshments will be served.

Sisterhood will again be selling Mah Jongg cards for 2018. The cost for a standard card is $8.00, and a large card is $9.00. Please make checks payable to Sisterhood of Madison Jewish Center by December 28th. Send the checks to MJC, attention Ellen Green.

Save the date for our Annual Movie Night on January 15, 2018. Rachel Streich will be donating the movie, The Zookeeper's Wife. Barbara Stein will be donating the refreshments.

Happy Thanksgiving to all! Look for our flyers for upcoming Sisterhood events.
