MESSAGE ARTICLE – OCTOBER 2017

Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.

The first two weeks of the month of October this year, are consumed with preparations for and the observance of the Festival of Sukkot. I believe that the ritual aspects of Sukkot are the most intense of all the Festivals. Some may say that the observance of the Festival of Passover is more difficult. Certainly, a case could be made that assuring everything is KASHER L'PESAH is more time consuming and even back-breaking than Sukkot, but once that has been accomplished, the rest of the ritual observance of Passover seems to proceed fairly smoothly.

In the Talmud, the Festival of Sukkot was called HeHag-THE Holiday. And, indeed, King Solomon dedicated the original Beit HaMikdash in Y'rushalayim during Sukkot. In terms of ritual Sukkot poses additional challenges: reciting Full Hallel for its duration, Hoshana Rabbah [the seventh day of the Sukkot] is almost a Holiday by itself. And then we have Sh'mini Atzeret [the eighth Day] which IS a Holiday by itself. And the second day of Sh'mini Atzeret, which we call Simhat Torah, is observed by those of us outside Eretz Yisrael. And the special Hoshanot, circling around the Sanctuary, with a Sefer Torah and Lulavim except on Shabbat.

With all of this going on for Sukkot, I just wanted to focus on the mitzvah of n'tillat lulav, the taking or waving the lulav. This requires arba'ah minim the four species – 1- Lulav [one palm branch], 2- Etrog [one citron], 3- Hadasim [three myrtle branches], 4-Aravot [two willow branches]. They are often referred to under the inclusive term lulav, since the lulav is the largest and most prominent of the species. All the species are placed in a special holder made of woven palm fronds and tied with side fronds from this or another lulav. Thus, while the mitzvah is to wave the lulav, this actually refers to waving all four species: palm, willow, myrtle and Etrog. Also, when people refer to the lulav and etrog, they are referring to all four species, including the willow and myrtle branches. It is considered an act of hiddur mitzvah – the beatification of the mitzvah of the observance of the Holiday – to acquire the arba'ah minim as fresh and unblemished as available, so that their beauty enhances our enjoyment of the Festival. It is a mitzvah to wave the lulav on each of the first seven days of Sukkot. The proper time is in the morning — either before the morning service or during the service immediately before the Hallel.

HAG SAMEAH!!!!

President's Message October 2017

Greetings Everyone! This past month has been filled with numerous activities and new initiatives at Madison Jewish Center. Now that summer is over, I hope you have joined us to see firsthand our revamped and exciting Friday night programs and many fun social events. Please check The Message, the flyers and our website www.madisonjc.org to get specifics about what we have to offer including the dates and times of holiday services.

Thank you to those who worked on Fund Raising, The Book of Remembrance, The Break the Fast refreshments and facilitating the many details that have made our High Holy Days run smoothly. Thank you to all who have already sent in their holiday donations, and those who are still planning to do so. Madison really needs the money.

The month of October has many holidays to celebrate and events planned for all. We invite you to join our Shabbat Shaboom Service October 6th at 7PM. It is an engaging and family friendly service one Friday each month. After Yom Kippur we will resume our Saturday Kiddush Luncheons. Lively discussion, delicious food, and some learning take place with friends of all ages. Please consider being a Kiddush Sponsor if you have not already joined us. This lunch builds our Madison community and is enjoyed by all.

Weather permitting, we will have our Oneg after services in the Sukkah Friday, October 6, 2017. Please join us on Simhat Torah for The Parade of Torahs on Thursday evening, October 12th. The beautiful Sisterhood Shabbat takes place Friday, October 20th. Consider joining us for the traditional Shabbat dinner before services. Paid reservations must be made in advance. Friday, October 27th, we will hear all about Cantor Rimer's Personal Journey highlighting his travels and very interesting background.

Please join us often. You will be glad you did!

Shalom,
Barbara

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS ----- OCTOBER 2017

I hope everyone had a very happy Rosh Hashanah and an easy fast.

Sunday, October 22nd, is our annual trip to Atlantic City. The day will begin with breakfast in the shul. Then we will play bingo on the bus. The fun continues with a full day of gambling and/or shopping. Let's hope for good weather so that we can gamble, walk on the boardwalk, and shop. Flyers were sent out. Make your reservations as soon as possible.

Our vodka and latka celebration is on Saturday evening, December 9th. This event is in conjunction with Sisterhood. Wine and painting is scheduled for Saturday evening, January 20th. The Super Bowl party, in conjunction with the Knights of Pythias is on Sunday, February 4th. More information about all our activities will be forthcoming.

Many interesting events are being discussed and planned for this year. Please let us know if you have any thoughts or ideas for future events.

Every member of MJC is also a member of the Social Club. Please take advantage of the many opportunities to spend time with friends. Let's keep MJC as the center of Egalitarian Conservative Judaism in this part of Brooklyn.

Check our website (madisonjc.org), watch for flyers, and check the Message for further information. Reservations for all activities can be made through our email address (info@madisonjc.org).

THE LATEST FROM SISTERHOOD

OCTOBER 2017

. The Annual Sisterhood Brunch held on Sunday, September 10th, was a huge success. All who attended enjoyed making Challah, and remembering their family traditions related to this. Thank you Ilene Marcus for planning the program and demonstrating how to make Challah. Thank you Teresa Gottesmann and Shelli Feldman for working on the committee for food and reservations.

Thank you Ellen Green for providing the cookies, and Linda Bell for supplying the juice for the Break the Fast on September 20th.

We are having a Sisterhood board meeting on Monday, October 9th at 7:00PM. If the weather holds up, it will be "Pizza in the Succah". Please contact Harriett or Shelli if you are attending. We need reservations in advance so we can order the food.

Look for the flyer for our Annual Sisterhood Shabbat Dinner. It will be held on Friday, October 20th. The cost is $28 for adults and $12 for children. Our new caterer, The Vue, will be providing the food. The dinner will start at 6:15 PM in the new catering hall, and services led by Sisterhood members will start at 7:30PM. Thank you Ilene Karpas for again chairing the services and program portion of the evening. Ellen Green will be our Rabbi, and Arlene Kane will be our Cantor. Thank you Yaffa Sapoznik and Anne Gruskin for chairing the food committee.

Save the date for our Annual Book Discussion led by our esteemed member Marlene Podell. The event will be held on Monday, November 20th. The book is The Zookeeper's Wife by Diane Ackerman. A brief board meeting will be held at 7:00PM followed by the book discussion. Refreshments will be served.

Save the date Saturday night, December 9th for Vodka and Latka and 60/40 raffle. This event will be co-chaired by Sisterhood of MJC in conjunction with Social Club.

We would like to thank all who contributed to the success of the Tree of Life Fundraiser for which their names will remain printed monthly up to the December 2017 Message. We will resume this program again effective January 2018 with a new tree.

Sisterhood will be sending out flyers and emails for all upcoming events and in addition, check the website for updates!

Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman
Sisterhood Co-Presidents

Shalom Parents,

Hebrew School has begun. Thank you to all who attended our first PA meeting. We hope to see more of you at our next meeting.

At our meeting we spoke about coming up with new fundraisers. Judy Posniack brought a new fundraiser to our attention. If we purchase a minimum of 15 $30.00 Disney on Ice tickets for Saturday November 11th at 7P.M. at the Barclays Center, the Madison Jewish Center PA will get a donation. If you are interested in purchasing tickets, e-mail us at stevenmel718@aol.com.

Also, if you want to buy gift cards, you need to submit your orders either online (see p.15) or to the office. As always we would like to thank you all for your ongoing support.
