Sunday May 6, 2018 11:00 AM

Journal Committee

We welcome you to our 87th Annual Journal Celebration. This event is the culmination of a year of planning and hard work by many individuals.

We are pleased to honor two wonderful women for their years of dedicated service to Madison and to Sisterhood: Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman Todah Rabah to our Journal Committee. We appreciate all the input you have given and time you have spent to make this year's Journal successful.

A special thanks to our office staff and MJC's members and friends. And thank you to Paul Podell for all the extra time you always put into the Journal.

We look forward to celebrating Madison Jewish Center's 88th Anniversary next year with all of you.

President's Message

It is with great pleasure that we celebrate Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman as Madison Jewish Center's 2018 Women of the Year. Over the years Harriett and Shelli have worked tirelessly on many programs and as a result of their leadership of Sisterhood, Madison has benefited from a strong group of women working to make our congregation special. Both Harriett and Shelli have helped raise sorely needed funds that enable Madison to support its daily operations and countless expenses. This is a well-deserved honor.

I would also like to thank our Journal Committee for coordinating another successful event. The Journal is our synagogue's largest annual fundraiser.

We appreciate all of today's attendees and advertisers. We need your support to continue the great work of Madison Jewish Center as a leader of Conservative Judaism in the future.

Love,

Barbara

The Madison Jewish Center Journal Committee has made another wise decision, matching those of years past, in choosing as our honorees for this year the Co-Presidents of our Sisterhood – Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman.

Some years ago, I became acquainted with a man who survived being an eyewitness to Kristallnacht – the night of broken glass in Germany on November 9-10, 1938. At that time Fred was 10 years old. His parents saw the handwriting on the wall and made plans for him and his younger sister to flee the oncoming disaster. He, alone, survived the hazards that followed – losing his sister along the way and never again seeing his parents after leaving Germany. Why am I telling you this story at this happy occasion? Because, Fred came and spoke to my Hebrew School students and told them about his incredible journey to America. After his remarks, one of my students, who happened to be about 10 years old, asked Fred, “who took care of you on your journey to America?” He told them that, in each town to which he came, he looked for a Jewish Synagogue and in that Synagogue there was most often a Sisterhood. It was the women of the Sisterhood who fed and sheltered him for a brief time and gave him sustenance enough to hopefully get to the next town, in his dangerous and incredible journey, where the women of the Sisterhood there repeated the same scenario.

Madison Jewish Center's Sisterhood is the spiritual descendant of the women who helped save the life of my friend Fred. Shelli and Harriett have added their unique talents to keep our Sisterhood's programming vibrant and sometimes acting in conjunction with our other affiliates in the all-important and essential fundraising activities. Both Harriett and Shelli, in their own quiet and subdued manner have succeeded in motivating others in our Sisterhood to step up to help and assist in the essential work they do. Madison Jewish Center, in no small way, has been able to survive to our current 87th Anniversary Year because of the past and current dedication of the leaders of our Sisterhood. To Shelli and Harriett a special YASHAR KOHACHEN – MORE POWER TO THE BOTH YOU. May our Sisterhood and Madison Jewish Center continue to be blessed into the future with the high standards of leadership that Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman have established.

Cantor Leslie Rimer

Zeh Hayom Asah Hashem Nagilla Ve Nismecha Boh.

This is the day the Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad.

In honor of our 87th Annual Journal Celebration, the honorees selected this year are two outstanding ladies, Harriett Elias Cohen and Shelli Eckhaus Feldman. They are both devoted and very active members of our beloved Madison Jewish Center for many decades. It is fitting that they have been chosen to be honored together since they have been close friends for many years. Harriett has worked in the field of Physical Therapy in academic, clinical and administrative positions for many years and still works part-time. She is the devoted wife to Stephen, loving mother to Lauren, Brian, Marc and Susan and an adoring grandmother to Sophia, Jenna and Alyssa. I had the pleasure of preparing Lauren and Marc for their Bnai Mitzvah and of officiating at Lauren's wedding ceremony.

Harriett has been active in all aspects of the shul since she and her family joined MJC almost three decades ago. She is a past president of the Parents' Association, Co-Vice President of programming for Sisterhood, and has served as Sisterhood Co-President for six years.

She supports the Sisterhood and their many activities and also serves as a member of the Congregation Board.

Shelli is a teacher by profession and still subs a few days a week. She is a devoted wife to Ron and a loving mother to Michael and his spouse Michael. Michael's Bar Mitzvah was celebrated at Madison Jewish Center and I had the honor of preparing him for his big day. Shelli's family ties to MJC go way back. It is no wonder that she found a home at Madison. Shelli, like Harriett, joined the Parents' Association where she was Co-President. She was Co-VP Programming for Sisterhood and has served with Harriett as Sisterhood Co-President for the past 6 years. She is engaged in many shul functions and also serves on the Congregation Board. Shelli is a very active member of Hadassah.

I am so pleased to see that the friendship of the Cohen and Feldman families has endured throughout the years. Mazel Tov to our two special honorees. It has been my privilege to know Shelli and Harriett and their respective families. May we all enjoy the blessing of having these two outstanding ladies with us for many years.

Sisterhood Message

We are this year's honorees and we wish to convey our appreciation for this recognition and honor. We have served as Co-Presidents since 2011 and throughout those years Sisterhood has flourished as an integral part of MJC.

Our goals for Sisterhood are to encourage learning and create activities that support the Madison community. As such, Sisterhood has succeeded because of a team effort with members working together with mutual respect, responsibility and commitment.

We are very fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with such a devoted, optimistic and supportive group of women. It is through their efforts that Sisterhood has accomplished many innovative programs throughout the years. Sisterhood women are absolutely amazing!

We are delighted to be honored for this year's Journal Celebration. We are very proud to receive this recognition and honor on this day. Thank you.

Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman

Sisterhood Co-Presidents

Social Club Message

Madison Jewish Center has undergone many changes this past year. We have a new caterer who has made fantastic renovations to our main ballroom. We have lost some of our valuable members, several of whom were always available whenever Madison needed them. But one great thing didn't change - our Madison family has continued to be a thriving community, supporting Social Club activities throughout the year.

A large part of that support is due to the efforts of our Sisterhood co-presidents, this year's Madison Jewish Center Women of the Year, Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman. Our two affiliates work together seamlessly to make MJC the center of Conservative Judaism in our area.

Two more deserving recipients you cannot find. From me personally, along with the other officers and members of the Social Club, we wish them a healthy and happy future and appreciate their dedication. May it continue for the next 100 years.

Ellen Green
Social Club President

Parents' Association Message

A Mazel Tov to both of this year's deserving honorees, Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman. You are both models of incredible dedication and service to our synagogue.

Harriett and Shelli, your dedication to our synagogue over the years has been invaluable. On behalf of the P.A. we just wanted to let you know that the amount of effort you put into Madison Jewish Center does not go unnoticed.

You both became active at Madison Jewish Center as Co-PA Presidents and have since been become Co-Presidents of Sisterhood. Your abilities and contributions are an important key to the success of Madison Jewish Center. Take a moment to reflect upon all of your accomplishments here at MJC and take pride in the fact that you are both worth your weight in gold.

You both share your time and talents with our congregation without any compensation and we appreciate everything you both have done for Madison.

Harriett Elias-Cohen

Harriett was born and raised in Brooklyn. She attended John Jay High School and graduated from Hunter College with a Bachelor of Health Sciences in Physical Therapy. She went back to Long Island University for a Masters Degree in 1976 and later a Clinical Doctorate in Physical Therapy in 2008. Harriett has worked in various Physical Therapy settings, involving academic, clinical and administrative positions. She continues to work part-time.

Harriett and her husband Stephen have been married for 45 years. They have two children, Lauren and Marc who celebrated their B'nai Mitzvot at Madison in 1995. Lauren presently lives in Brooklyn with her husband Brian and daughters Sophia and Jenna. Marc lives in Long Beach, L.I. with his wife Susan and their daughter Alyssa.

It is hard to write about her involvement with Madison without including the Feldmans. Their friendship began during the time their children Lauren, Marc, and Michael became friends playing baseball at Amity Little League. They all clicked so well that the whole gang decided to join Madison Jewish Center in 1990 and have been active ever since. As a matter of fact, this was the start of a very long and dear family friendship, which has now spanned the decades. Harriett was a past P.A. President along with Shelli and Vicky Dreifus from 1992 to 1995 and then Sisterhood Co-VP of Programming. She became a Co-President of Sisterhood with Shelli for three consecutive terms beginning in 2011. She regularly chairs Health Night for Sisterhood and supports Sisterhood programming throughout the year. She also serves on the Congregational Board. Harriett is a member of the Park Slope Chapter of Hadassah and served as its former Health Chair. She is a former President of the Brooklyn Mothers of Twins Club that coincidentally met at Madison Jewish Center. When not working or doing something for Madison, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends, reading, going to the beach and traveling.

On a personal note, when looking for a synagogue to join a search was made for one that provided a sense of community and caring. Thus, almost 28 years later, the Cohens remain a member to this day. Harriett is proud to be part of this congregation and proud to be honored on this day.

Shelli Eckhaus-Feldman

Shelli was born in Easton, Pennsylvania and moved to Brooklyn when she was eleven years old. She attended Sheepshead Bay High School and graduated from Brooklyn College with a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Education. Shelli received a Master's Degree from Brooklyn College in Special Education in 1976. She is retired but still works a few days a week.

Shelli and her husband Ron have been married for forty-two years. They have a son Michael who had his Bar Mitzvah at Madison Jewish Center in 1995. Michael lives in Los Angeles, California with his husband, Michael.

The Feldman and Cohen friendship started when their children were playing on the same baseball team at Amity Little League. They decided to join Madison Jewish Center together in 1990, and continue to participate in many activities and functions at Madison. This friendship has endured and strengthened throughout the years.

Harriett and Shelli, along with Vicky Dreifus, were PA Presidents from 1992-1995. Shelli and Harriett then became Programming Vice Presidents of Sisterhood. Since 2011, Shelli along with Harriett have been Sisterhood Co-Presidents. Shelli chairs the Sisterhood Opening Brunch, serves on the Congregation Board and supports Sisterhood programming throughout the year. Shelli is active in the Park Slope Chapter of Hadassah as well as the Brooklyn Region of Hadassah. She is the Education Vice President of the Chapter, and is the Associates Chair of the Brooklyn Region Hadassah along with her husband Ron.

When not involved in Hadassah, Madison or work, she enjoys reading, traveling and spending time with family and friends.

When Shelli was younger, she remembers attending services at Madison with her Aunt and Uncle who were Madison members. One of her cousins was Bar Mitzvahed at Madison and two others were married there. It gave her a feeling of belonging and a sense of being part of something. It was the right place for her and her family. After all these years, Shelli continues to feel that way. Shelli is happy to be part of the Madison family and is proud to be one of Madison's Women of the Year.
