MESSAGE ARTICLE – SEPTEMBER 2018
Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.

Ready! Set! Repent! If only it could be that easy. When the Jewish Calendar beckons all of us to the synagogue for Rosh haShannah, our tradition considers the Midrash that states: Kol haHalot Kashot – all beginnings are difficult. And so, to achieve one of the enormously difficult goals of this time of year – Heshbon haNefesh – taking a spiritual accounting of our souls it was divided into stages. This allows us to come to grips with our own shortcomings and the finite time we are granted to achieve our favorably being sealed for blessing in the Book of Life.

The first step is the S'lihot Service of Penitential Prayers. This year S'lihot begins on Saturday night September 1st. We will be gathering with our sister congregation Temple Sholom here at Madison for film and socialization at 8:30pm followed by our S'lihot Service. We recite S'lihot prayers beginning the Saturday night before Rosh haShannah to adequately prepare for the upcoming – Aseret Y'mei T'shuvah - the ten days of repentance. In a year when Rosh haShannah begins on a Sunday night or Monday night, as it does this year, we begin S'lihot a week earlier giving us that much more time to prepare in advance for Rosh haShannah. We do this as a sign of our eagerness to begin this important process.

Before S'lihot there is the meaningful ritual of changing the Torah covers and Ark curtains to white, which are specifically designed for the High Holidays. This color represents purity and the wish that through repentance, our sins will be made white as snow (Isaiah 1:18). You are invited to join our Ritual Committee on Thursday evening August 30th at 6:00pm for the changing of the covers and curtains.

President's Message September 2018

Shalom All!

Summer is quickly flying by. I sincerely hope it was a good one for you and yours. For me this time of year means back to work, and the High Holy Days are almost here. It is time to arrange for holiday seats and to make your pledges. The office is open for you during regular business hours.

Please consider joining us for S'lihot night for a wonderful start to the holidays. We will be having a collaborative service with Temple Sholom at Madison Jewish Center. A fabulous movie about Jewish humor will be shown prior to the service, with delicious refreshments to follow.

Services over the summer have truly been delightful. We have had regular minyanim, insightful Divrai Torahs from several of MJC's congregants, and refreshing new Friday night programs from Cantor Rimer in July and Rabbi Kane/Arlene Kane in August. Thank you to all the facilitators and participants for making our summer services successful.

I would like to share a wonderful act of generosity and kindness bestowed on MJC by a member who has requested anonymity. This member knew that MJC wanted to renovate the restroom in our original building so that it was handicap accessible. The restroom also badly needed a cosmetic update. This person provided the funds associated with the cost, and we are in the process of having the work done. How wonderful a gift and mitzvah to do for our beloved MJC. There are numerous renovations we still sorely need to do to update our original building. Anyone else who can provide MJC with similar support would be a further blessing to our shul. Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Love, Barbara

THE LATEST FROM SISTERHOOD SEPTEMBER 2018

We hope everyone had a restful and pleasant summer. As autumn is approaching, Sisterhood has been planning several events for the upcoming 2018-2019 year.

Our first function is the Annual Sisterhood Opening Brunch. It will be held on Sunday, September 16th from 9:45 AM to 12:00 PM. Our guest speaker is Arielle Kane, Esq. (daughter of Arlene and Rabbi Kane). The topic she will be discussing concerns Universal Healthcare. Both men and women are invited. Look for flyers in the mail. Please contact Shelli Feldman or Teresa Gottesmann if you have any questions. Hope to see you there.

Sisterhood will again be sponsoring the Break the Fast with juice and cookies after Yom Kippur services on Wednesday, September 19th.

Save the date for Sisterhood's Annual Shabbat Dinner and Services. The event is scheduled for Friday, November 19th. This is always a wonderful evening with the ladies of Sisterhood leading the program for that evening. Flyers will be forthcoming.

Monday November 19 will be Sisterhood's annual book discussion led by Marlene Podell. This year's book is Lilac Girls, a novel by Martha Hall Kelly.

Hope to see you at our Sisterhood programs.

Have a Happy and Healthy New Year! L'Shanah Tova!

Harriett Cohen and Shelli Feldman

Sisterhood Co-Presidents

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS ----- SEPTEMBER 2018

Welcome to a new and exciting season. I hope everyone had a very healthy and enjoyable summer and is ready for a wonderful time with the many varied activities that have been planned for this year.

The first event is our annual trip to Atlantic City on Sunday, October 14th. Please mark your calendars and join us for a great day of gambling, shopping, and walking on the boardwalk.

Comedy night is scheduled for Sunday, November 11th. Gary Keshner, a professional comedian, has already been booked for the evening. It promises to be an entertaining and fun time for all. The cost is only $25.

Many additional activities are already being discussed and planned for this year. Our annual Vodka and Latka Hanukkah celebration is scheduled for Saturday evening, December 1st. The Super Bowl party is on Sunday, February 1st, 2019. Please let us know if you have any thoughts or ideas for the future.

Every member of MJC is also a member of the Social Club. Please take advantage of the many opportunities to spend time with friends. Let's keep MJC as the center of Egalitarian Conservative Judaism in this part of Brooklyn.

Check our website (madisonjc.org), watch for flyers, and check the Message for further information. Reservations for all activities can be made through our email address (info@madisonjc.org).

I wish everyone a sweet, happy, and healthy New Year.

L'Shana Tovah

Ilene Karpas

Shalom Parents,

I hope you all had a relaxing summer. Welcome back! We are incredibly excited about having more Tzivos Hashem workshops, having our Hanukkah cookie dough sale, our Passover candy sale, and more PA meetings so that everyone can be involved in our activities and fundraisers.

Here are some important dates for this school year. Hebrew school begins Wednesday, September 5th. There will be Junior Congregation on Rosh haShannah and Yom Kippur, as well as a babysitting room for the very little ones. The Sukkah raising is scheduled for Sunday, September 9th. The first Shabbat Shaboom is Friday, October 5th at 7pm outside in the triangle.

We look forward to a very positive and productive year together. We wish you all a Happy and Healthy 5779.

Melanie Green for the Parents' Association
