Kane D.D.

The transition from one secular year to another is an interesting experience for us as Jews. Rosh haSHannah is our new year, but for those of us living in North America, we also split our time following the Jewish Calendar and the secular Gregorian calendar. And people all around us are now making New Year's resolutions. As Jews, who participated in the High Holy Days, this year in September - living in two different time zones as it were - we have another opportunity to reflect upon the commitments that we made during the N'ilah service at the conclusion of Yom Kippur.

Psychologists say it is a natural human reaction to seek control rather than trusting in the unknown. We all make plans and promises, hoping to be worthy of a year of blessing. But, when the ending of a moment in time causes us anxiety, we are forced to confront our insecurity and mortality. Trusting in the unknown future is a spiritual skill that requires practice. This is one of the reasons why so many of our religious rituals center around the transitions of life cycle events, seasonal changes or even, as the Havdallah Service, shifting us from the sanctity of Shabbat to the ordinary events of a new week.

During these moments of transition, it is helpful to harken back to those things that are positive and unchanging, and to affirm them publicly, so that we can remain centered in the daunting tasks in the future that we shall have to overcome. As we come to the end of 2021, we recognize that this past pandemic year has been a difficult one for our world, for our country, for our synagogue, for our families and for each of us as individuals. We all hope and pray that 2022 will be a year in which our society, our civilization, and our world will be transformed into some semblance of normalcy, and thereby once again allow us the preference of participating in those activities that bring joy, pleasure, comfort, and satisfaction into our lives.

President's Message

December 2021

“The quiet transition from autumn to winter is not a bad time at all. It's a time for protecting and securing things and for making sure you've got in as many supplies as you can. It's nice to gather together everything you possess as close to you as possible, to store up your warmth and your thoughts and burrow yourself into a deep hole inside, a core of safety where you can defend what is important and precious and your very own. Then the cold and the storms and the darkness can do their worst. They can grope their way up the walls looking for a way in, but they won't find one, everything is shut, and you sit inside, laughing in your warmth and your solitude, for you have had foresight.”

— Tove Jansson

This passage reminds me of the “winter” of the pandemic, where we were all forced to stay home, upend our regular routines and reevaluate our priorities. As with the season of winter, it also became a time to reflect on what gives us warmth and feelings of safety. For most of us, the answer to that is friends and family, good health, (and toilet paper). We defended what is important and precious to us by getting vaccinated and wearing masks and socially distancing.

By our preparations and foresight, we were able to weather the pandemic “winter”, and now we are beginning to see the spring season ahead of us. We are slowly resuming our in-person services and events, such as the annual Vodka and Latke party on December 11, where celebrating seeing our Madison family and friends will take on a different meaning than it has in years past.

So make sure this winter you are stocked up on cherished friends and family (and toilet paper) and come to Madison in person to celebrate the triumph of the human spirit!

Π Ν Ψ    ק ר י Π    Happy Winter

Rachel

RABBI KANE'S OFFICE HOURS FOR DECEMBER 2021

Sisterhood December 2021

Sisterhood programs are well underway for the 2021- 2022 season. We enjoyed Marlene Podell's book review of "Eli's Promise" by Ronald Balson in November. Thanks to Marlene for the excellent inspiring discussion. Join us on December 11th for a night of fun together with Social Club as we present our annual Vodka and Latka night in person at MJC. Eat, drink (as much chocolate vodka as you like) and be merry. At the December 27th Virtual Sisterhood meeting we will have a Pre-New Year's secular celebration at 7:30 PM. Chairs Barbara Stein and Ilene Marcus promise a fun night with no charge. All are welcome. The Sisterhood's 2022 new Tree of Life will be printed every month in the Message beginning in January. Honor your family members with a leaf. The cost is $10 per name. Checks are due by December 8th made out to Sisterhood of MJC, and sent to Teresa Gottesmann. As more people are getting together in person (hopefully after getting your booster shots), be sure to contact Ellen Green for the new Mah Jongg cards. Happy Chanukah and Happy Secular New Year to all.

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS

December 2021

We are finally starting to open the shul with live services. Saturday morning services in the main sanctuary will take place on December 18th. Hope to see you there. Zoom will also be available.

Our monthly mini raffle is still ongoing. For only $10, you have a chance to win $200. Please send in your entry forms as soon as possible. Myra Lee Fleischman was the October winner. The December donor wants to remain anonymous.

On November 7th, the Social Club went on a virtual trip to the Greek Synagogue on the Lower East Side. The tour was wonderful. We learned many interesting facts about the Jews from Greece. Thank you, Mario, for all your hard work in making this event successful.

Vodka and Latke in conjunction with Sisterhood will take place live on Saturday night, December 11th. We are in the process of planning the evening. Watch for more information.

BINGO is scheduled for January 22nd. We are also working on a crafts night and ping pong. The Social Club Shabbat will take place on Friday evening, May 20th. Please let us know if you have any additional suggestions.

The gala celebration for Cantor Rimer was a tremendous success. Many people came to thank him for his guidance and service for 47 years at MJC. He will be greatly missed. Please keep MJC alive by supporting as many activities as you can. Check your email and the Message for further information. Phone trees will also go out every week. Watch for flyers.

Happy and healthy secular New Year to all!

Ilene Karpas

Shalom parents,

We hope you are all having a great Hanukkah. Thank you to all of the students and parents who attended the community Hanukkiah lighting at our synagogue.

The Rabbi and the teachers are doing a great job teaching all the students at the Hebrew school. The students are learning so much more this year in person than last year. Thank you all who keep supporting our gift cards, and remember, we are still selling them. You can either order them online at www.glscrip.com or you can e-mail me at stevenmel718@aol.com or Ellen Green at emg522@aol.com and we will put an order through for you.
