MESSAGE ARTICLE – October 2021Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.

The complete and correct name for the month following Tishrei is Heshvan, and it has become a minhag – tradition, to call it MarHeshvan the bitter month of Heshvan due to its lack of holidays, [mar is Hebrew for bitter, hence the word maror the bitter herb for Pesah]. The Shulkhan Arukh uses the name for this fall month as the one-word MarHeshvan.

The Bible's usual references to the months use their ordinal numbers, although occasionally ancient Israelite names are also used i.e., Aviv the 1st month, Ziv the 2nd month, Ethanim the 7th month, and Bul the 8th month. The currently used Jewish names for the months were imported from Babylonia. Many of these names appear in post-exilic books of the Bible. Some of the months are derived from the names of ancient gods, such as Tammuz which is thought to come from the Assyrian Du-mu-zu, an Egyptian god, and is mentioned as the name of an idol in Ezekiel 8:14.

MarHeshvan is probably derived from its location in the calendar. In Akkadian (Babylonian/Assyrian), “w” (vav) and “m” (mem) sounds can interchange. As a result, MarHeshvan - which is from the two words “m’rach” and “shvan,” - would have been “warh” and “shman,” in Akkadian MarHeshvan, corresponding to the Hebrew “yereh sh’mini,” thus “the eighth month.” In the Yemenite tradition, the name of the month is pronounced Marah-sha’wan, not MarHeshvan as in the Ashkenazic tradition, and this would seem to preserve a greater fidelity to the original. When the eighth month is mentioned in the Mishnah and Talmud, it is referred to as MarHeshvan. And throughout all of Rashi's biblical and talmudic commentary, he also refers to the month as MarHeshvan. Maimonides and Ibn Ezra also use the complete name of MarHeshvan.

This duality of names has halakhic implications. Since the practice of simply calling the month Heshvan is so widespread, either Heshvan or the two-word Mar Heshvan is now acceptable practice in the SHulhan Arukh if used in a legal document such as a get. In Even ha'Ezer, Rabbi Jacob ben Asher - Rashi's grandson - lists only Mar Heshvan as the month's name and does not give the halakhah if one wrote either just Heshvan or the two-word Mar Heshvan. Others even accept the Biblical name of the month, “Bul,” if it was used in a document. The SHulhan Arukh states that the halakhah is the same for the imprecise usage of Menahem Av.

Surprisingly, there are even customs that developed around the use of Mar Heshvan. The assumption is that it is called Mar Heshvan (the bitter month of Heshvan) either due to its lack of holidays or because it is when Sarah Imoteinu, Sarah our Matriarch died. Because of those negative associations, there are those who refrain from getting married in Mar Heshvan. Others claim that this was the minhag only in Jerusalem but outside this local people are not concerned with this and get married in Heshvan. The only explanation that I have found for calling this month by the two-word name Mar Heshvan is based on the fact that it is the beginning of the rainy season. The Targum translated mar as tipah, a drop, in the verse “Hen goyim k'mar midli — Behold, the nations are as a drop of water from a bucket” (Isaiah 40:15). As such, the name means the “rainy Heshvan,” and far from mar meaning bitter, it connotes a month of blessed rain. There is a wonderful midrash about the future of Mar Heshvan indicating that the dedication of the Third Temple will occur in Mar Heshvan removing any doubt about it being a bitter month.

President's Message

October 2021

L'shana Tova everyone. G'mar chatima tova. May you be inscribed in the book of life. Now that our holiday services are complete we would like to thank all the people who played a part in its production.

Organizing and running these high holiday services, especially in a year like this one involves the work of many people. We are grateful to them all. The season began with our S'lichot service. Thank you Rachel Streich and Marlene Podell for coordinating the evening with Temple Sholom. Thank you, Jay Streich for setting up our video for the evening. Preparing the Book of Remembrance is a huge job. Thank you, Ellen Green and Andrew Menkes.

Torah covers had to be changed. Thank you, Andrew Menkes, Michael Parnes, and myself. Our office staff works extra hard at this time of year. Thank you, Bella Benders and Irina Makarovskaya. As for the services themselves, thank you and yasher koach, Rabbi Kane and thank you for your inspiring sermons. I cannot say enough praise for our Cantor Ben Rosenbach who did an amazing job of inspiring us on such short notice, taking over for retired Cantor Leslie Rimer.

Barry Resnick led us in Pezukei D'Z imrah on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Barry also led Mincha and chanted the Haftarah for Yom Kippur afternoon. Bonnie Kiner-Strachan, Marla Hesse and Randi Herman chanted Haftarahs. Reading the Torah at different times were Roy Alexander, Bunny Bender, Andrew Menkes, Barry Resnick, Ellen Green, Matt Hesse, Reid Packer, Marla Hesse, Arlene Kane, Randi Herman, and Jordyn Green. Our Gabbayim were Ilene Karpas and Andrew Menkes. Michael Parnes was the official ark opener for all the virtual honored congregant ark openers.

Paul Podell delivered the Yizkor appeal. All pledges can be sent or brought to the office. Our Baal Tokea or master of the shofar was David Lamb. David Amiramov set up our sound system. Thank you, David. Paul Podell and Brian Bender kept track of all the ark openings and other honors. Our health and wellness committee consists of Harriett Cohen, Irene Cimini, Ellen Green, Matt Hesse, Barbara Stein and Shelli Feldman, and we thank them for their service. And thank you to any congregants who took a turn at the front desk. Thank you to our usher, Michael Sosin. Rose Coulson helped us in so many ways. She arranged seats, attached seat tags, kept things orderly and clean. She is a very special lady.

Zoom services were arranged and produced by Ellen Green, Linda Parnes and Brian Bender. Our Sukkah was put up by Steven Green, Shane Green and Barry Stein. Melanie Green handled the decorating of the Succah. Special thanks go to Bruce Solomon for arranging police coverage. We thank the 61st precinct for keeping us safe and secure. We also thank each and every one of you, our congregation, for being here. Of course, we'd love to see you more often. Thank you, sisterhood for providing the drinks and snacks at the conclusion of services.

As I'm sure you all know, the rules and recommendations for in-door services keep changing. For now, Monday and Thursday morning services are on Zoom at 7:30 am. Friday evening services are on Zoom at 7:30 pm. We are exploring a return to in-person services for Saturday mornings. For the time being these services are at 10:30 am on Zoom. Stay tuned for future plans. Rabbi Kane's adult education will be starting this fall. Stay tuned for the details of time and place.

If you are not yet aware, Saturday evening, October 30th at 8 pm we are having a gala dinner and party to honor our retired Cantor Leslie Rimer, who has been with us for 47 years. We invite everyone to submit anecdotes and remembrances to the office to be included in a book to be presented to Leslie at his honorarium. You should have received an invitation by now.

All of our events and service times are listed in our monthly bulletin, "The Message", and in flyers that are routinely mailed to you. Bruce Herman does the layout of our issues of The Message. Thank you, Bruce. Thanks also to Marlene Podell who is the best proofreader The Message has. A special thank you goes to Arlene Kane who prepares our large informational posters and some of our flyers. They are beautiful and so professional.

And finally, if we've forgotten to thank anyone, please forgive us. It was surely unintentional. Again, we all here at Madison Jewish Center wish everyone a healthy and sweet year.

Rachel and Roy

Sisterhood October 2021

Sisterhood started Fall activities by holding an Opening Brunch on Sunday, September 12th in the synagogue. Michelle Blatt gave an inspiring talk about “Making Aliyah: Decisions and Considerations.” It was wonderful to see everyone in person! Thank you to Shelli Feldman and Teresa Gottesmann for chairing this event.

Sisterhood next sponsored the Break the Fast snacks at the conclusion of Yom Kippur services. Thank you to Ellen Green for donating the cookies.

The October 18th Sisterhood meeting will feature a program selected by the Cooking, Craft and Community Committee. Details will be forthcoming.

We are all looking forward to the annual Sisterhood Shabbat Service to be held on Zoom on Friday October 22nd. Chair Ilene Karpas encourages all Sisterhood members to participate in this virtual program.

Marlene Podell is planning to review the book “Eli’s Promise” by Ronald Balson at the November 15th Sisterhood meeting on Zoom. Join us for this always popular event.

And here’s hoping we can hold the annual Vodka and Latka evening co-sponsored with Social Club on December 11th in person. But our fun-loving bartenders can perform on Zoom if we have to be virtual. We will let you know closer to the event. May the New Year bring health and happiness to us all.
