MESSAGE ARTICLE – November 2021

Rabbi Shae J. Kane D.D.

At the end of this month of November we celebrate two of my favorite Holidays. I am of course talking about the American Holiday of Thanksgiving and the Jewish Holiday of Hanukkah. This year, as it happens every so often, the dates of these Holidays occur close to one another. In fact, in 2021, they are days apart and fall on the same weekend. As a child I loved Thanksgiving, not only because the foods that we ate were so good, but because there was no school for four consecutive days. And I loved Hanukkah because I would get a present each day of the Holiday. And, as an only child, my mother and her siblings, zikhronam liv'rakhah, would shower me with these presents to the utmost extent that their resources could accommodate.

I still love both holidays but, as a husband, father, and grandfather that love has drastically changed over the years. I enjoy Thanksgiving and Hanukkah because now it is the family gatherings at these occasions that have become a top priority in my life. I remember the precious memories I have of these gatherings as a young adult that still bring joy to my heart. And now, years later, the multigeneration gatherings we have as a family will instill, in the current generation, memories and subsequent reminiscences that will last a lifetime.

From my family to you and your families a Happy Thanksgiving and a Freilekhin Hanukkah!

RABBI KANE'S OFFICE HOURS FOR NOVEMBER 2021

Rabbi Kane's office hours at MJC, during the month of November 2021, will be on Monday afternoons from 3:00pm to 5:00pm. You may call him at the Synagogue number 718.339.7755 during that time. If you need to reach Rabbi Kane at any other time, please feel free to reach out to him without any hesitation whatsoever as he welcomes your calls or texts on his cell phone 718.813.1158. If you call Rabbi Kane, and he is temporarily unavailable, please be kind enough to leave a message and he will get back to you as soon as possible. If you prefer, you may also email Rabbi Kane at rabsjk4@gmail.com.

President's Message

November 2021

Deuteronomy 24:19 provides that, “When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow. When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow. Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this.”

One of the takeaways from this is the importance of caring for the needs of others, as well as for your own needs. And not just the needs of others who may be less fortunate than ourselves, as in the fatherless and widow, but also the needs of a foreigner or stranger to you. The person who does not distinguish between a neighbor or friend from a stranger is blessed by God. This is why it was such a blessing that our Madison Jewish Center family donated food to City Harvest to feed those less fortunate and who were also strangers to us.

However, we must not let our charitable inclinations be only once or twice a year. Feeding and caring for others, regardless of that person's situation, is a blessing all year round. Sometimes people need emotional and spiritual nourishment too, and not just food. I would encourage everyone to be charitable in financial donations, food donations, and/or donations of time and understanding for those in need. The foreigner, the fatherless and the widow could be us at any time, and a little goes a long way.

צדקה מתחילה בבית – Charity begins at home

Sisterhood November 2021

Sisterhood is off to a good start for the 2021-2022 season. We hope you will join us for the upcoming programs we have planned, whether in person or via Zoom. All are welcome.

On October 18th we were treated to a fascinating book talk by Holocaust survivor and author, Mira Rosenblatt, and her daughter Belinda Rosenblatt Levavi. Mira's memoir is an amazing story of hardship and survival during the war years. Thank you to Ilene Marcus and Eva Hirsch for arranging the program.

Ilene Karpas, once again, put together a wonderful program for the Virtual Sisterhood Shabbat on Friday October 22nd. Thank you to Ilene and all the Madison women who participated.

We look forward to the November 15th meeting and Virtual Book Discussion. Marlene Podell will present "Eli's Promise" by Ronald H. Balson.

Vodka and Latka will be held on December 11th sponsored by Sisterhood and Social Club, hopefully in person. Details to follow.

On December 27th Sisterhood is planning a Secular New Year's celebration chaired by Barbara Stein and Ilene Marcus.

MJC SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS

November 2021

We are finally starting to open the shul with live services. Morning services in the main sanctuary will take place on November 20th and December 18th. Zoom will also be available.

Our monthly mini raffle is still ongoing. For only $10, you have a chance to win $200. Please send in your entry forms as soon as possible. Brian Bender was the September winner. Randi and Bruce Herman are the November sponsors.

The Social Club has been busy planning exciting and interesting activities and events for this year. An educational trip to the Greek Synagogue will take place virtually on Sunday, November 7th, at 6:00PM. The cost is only $18 per device. The Zoom code will be sent only to those with paid reservations. Send your checks to MJC attention Ellen Green by November 1st.

Vodka and Latka in conjunction with Sisterhood will take place on December 11th. BINGO is scheduled for January 22nd. We are also working on a crafts night and ping pong. The Social Club Shabbat will take place on Friday evening, May 20th. Please let us know if you have any additional suggestions.

Our beloved Cantor Rimer has retired after 47 years. We had a gala celebration on October 30th to thank him for his wonderful guidance and service to MJC. He will be greatly missed.

Please keep MJC alive by supporting as many activities as you can. Check your email for invitations and the Message for further information. Watch for flyers.

Ilene Karpas

Shalom parents,

Hebrew school has begun again in person, and we just want to welcome everybody back. It has been an exciting few weeks for both the teachers, the Rabbi, and the students. Everyone seems to be adjusting very well to in person learning again. Thank you all for your continued support and cooperation, and we are looking forward to another great school year.

We are also still selling gift cards. You can either order them online at www.glscrip.com or you can e-mail me at stevenmel718@aol.com or Ellen Green and we will put an order through for you.

We are looking for a volunteer to design flyers (and possibly posters), for our Congregation activities (i.e., Community Hanukkah lighting). If you have the ability, and the time, we would greatly appreciate your help! Contact Irina in the office if you are interested!
