Rabbi's Message September 2025

Even though there is nearly a month of Summer left as of this writing, life has begun to radically change from the mental and physical laziness that the summer seems to afford us. Families prepare for the upcoming academic years as schools and vacations are ending. In the Jewish religious world, planning and preparation for the High Holydays and Sukkot are under way. A large part of that radical change is the time, or better still, the adjustment of how that time is perceived. We can go from lazy, lackadaisical, slower actions to hectic, manic, busier actions in just a moment or a blink of an eye, because our realization of needed accomplishment and planning, which are the use of time, has been forced to change.

William Penn wrote; "Time is what we want most, but what we use worst."

It seems that what he is stating is that we are not good at how we manage our time. I recently saw an interview on You Tube given by Kevin Leary of Shark Tank fame. What you may not know is that Kevin once worked for Steve Jobs who was the co-founder of Apple Inc. Now you should know Steve Jobs had a reputation for not being a nice man but a man of intense focus. There is a concept known as Signal and Noise. Noise refers to distractions and Signal refers to whatever your focus is at the time. Mr. Leary stated in this interview was that Mr. Jobs 'Signal' was his driving factor, he didn't tolerate 'Noise' which to him was a waste of 'time'. Mr. Leary further remarked that he had only met one other person in his entire life who had a higher 'Signal'; Elon Musk! To them 'Noise' was a waste, it used 'time' that was not recoverable. To them, time management was/is the key to their success.

The late Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks (ז"ל) wrote; "Time management is more than management and larger than time. It is about life itself... However rich we are, there are still only twenty-four hours in a day, seven days in a week, and a span of years that, however long, is still all too short. Whoever we are, whatever we do... the single most important fact about our life, on which all else depends, is how we spend our time." (Life-Changing Ideas p. 169).

I spend a lot of my time visiting and working with Jewish and non-Jewish inmates studying Judaism. Every week I am inside a prison or correctional institution meeting, teaching, coaching inmates. One of the things we discuss is 'time management'. Inmates have to find ways to occupy their time/lives on the 'inside' and most institutions do not offer any programming whatsoever. Most institutions have shut down their libraries and only if the inmate has financial means, can have access to a tablet or books they can order. The concept of rehabilitation has moved radically towards a punishment of dehumanization. As a side note, the fact that inmates have so much unoccupied time on their hands, forces their brain to find other ways to occupy time. Because of this, the incarcerated find inventive and radical ways to try and get around the system, rules, etc., therefore causing the institution to be stricter and harsher in its rules and control. I have witnessed this first hand.

At MJC we should ask ourselves, how did we spend our time in the past? How did we handle 'Signal' and 'Noise'? What did we accomplish or achieve this past year? Did we spend our time wisely because we can't recover it and what can we learn from that?

The תורה (torah) teaches us at ראש השנה (Rosh Hashanah) the following:

דַּבֵּר אֶל־בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל לֵאמֹר בַּחֹדֶשׁ הַשְּׁבִיעִי בְּאַחַד לַחֹדֶשׁ יְהִיָּה לָכֶם שַׁבָּתוֹן זִכְרוֹן תְּרוּעָה מִקְרָא־קֹדֶשׁ:
(ויקרא כג'כד)

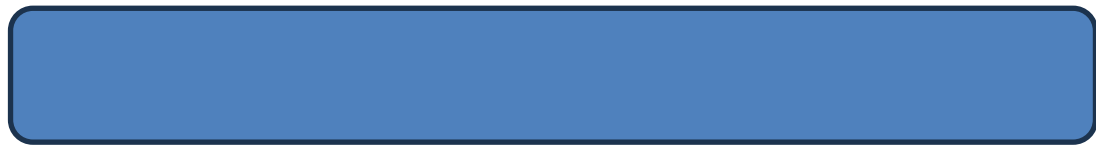

“Speak to the Children of Israel, saying: In the seventh month, on the first of the month, there shall be a rest day for you, a remembrance with shofar blasts, a holy convocation. (Leviticus 23'24).”

On this day we have the commandment of remembrance, to think back and remind ourselves of many things as Jews. But what we may not be focusing on is that the commandment also means we have to also look at time management, to remind ourselves that time is invaluable, it is non-recoverable once lost and must be used to its fullest when presented.

As the New Year approached, let us focus on this issue, time management. May the Lord bless us with a renewed understanding of its wealth, use and need. Bless us with more 'Signal' and less 'Noise'

Devorah and I wish you a לְשָׁנָה טוֹבָה וְיַמְתָּקָה (a sweet New Year).

Rabbi Johanan Bickhardt

President's Message September 2025

September is a month of contrasts. The days grow shorter as summer slips away, and we return to the rituals of our daily lives. Summer homes are locked up and our young ones try to get into school mode as we wonder where did the time go.

It is hard to believe how quickly this summer has flown by, and that by the time you get to read this, Labor Day may have come and gone.

As the sun begins to set earlier, and the evenings begin to get cooler, we often feel a tinge of sadness as nature signals summer is coming to a close. As we bid farewell to lazy days, warm evenings, and endless adventures with a sense of nostalgia, we also look ahead to the busy days of autumn.

Before we have time to finish reflecting and wondering, a new season is upon us as we begin our preparations, mentally, physically, and spiritually for the wonders of the High Holiday season. Here at Madison, we eagerly welcome members back from their summer homes and embark on the myriads of preparations needed for the upcoming high holidays.

The ritual committee has been hard at work since August and will continue working up until and through the conclusion of the holidays. By now, you should have received all of the holiday flyers. Please get your ticket orders as soon as possible, and please be generous when making your Koidre and Yizkor pledges, as it is these donations that keep Madison's doors open.

Although September will be filled with the hustle and bustle of holiday preparation, there will still be plenty of activity at Madison. Join us for morning minyan Monday and Thursday on zoom at 7:15 and for weekly Shabbat services in the Beit Hamidresh at 9:30. Catch up with friends as you support Sisterhood's opening brunch on Sunday September 7th and the ice cream fundraiser at We got the Scoop on Wednesday September 17th. However you spend the waning days of summer; enjoy, be safe and keep Madison close at heart.

Rosh Hashanah, the "Head of the Year" is a time of for prayer, self-reflection and t'shuvah. Join us for services Help us make 5786 a sweet, meaningful year for all. May this year bring more sweetness, more joy, and more time well spent together.

Shalom parents,

We still need a parent to run the Parents' Association

The Latest from Sisterhood
September 2025

I hope everyone had a healthy, relaxing, enjoyable, and safe summer. We are already working hard at work planning activities for this year.

The opening brunch is scheduled for Sunday, September 7th from 10 – 12. The guest speakers are Harriet Blank, LSW Director of OHEL and Rachel Kaylie, Esquire. Thank you to Shelli and Teresa for organizing the food.

The ice cream fundraiser will be at We Got The Scoop. It will take place on Wednesday, September 17th from 4 – 7 pm. A percentage of the sales will be donated to the Sisterhood.

Ellen, Linda, Barbara, and Fran are providing refreshments to break the fast. This will occur on October 2nd at the end of Yom Kippur.

The next Sisterhood meeting will take place on Thursday, October 9th. We will be celebrating with pizza in the Succah.

The Sisterhood Shabbat will take place on Friday evening, October 24th. Ilene Karpas is the chair. It will be followed by a dessert oneg.

Many more activities are being planned. Watch for flyers, check your email or our new website madisonjc.org for further information. A phone tree also goes out every week.

SOCIAL CLUB HAPPENINGS September 2025

I hope everyone had a relaxing, enjoyable, healthy, and safe summer. The Social Club is already planning activities for the coming year.

The Kosher food collection for City Harvest will begin on September 9th. Donations can be made either online or brought to MJC. Instructions will follow.

The annual raffle fundraiser will begin after the holidays. You will receive a book of five tickets. You can either purchase them yourself or sell them. Watch for further information.

Elyse and Michele are working very hard investigating various places for our educational trip. Please let us know if you have any ideas.

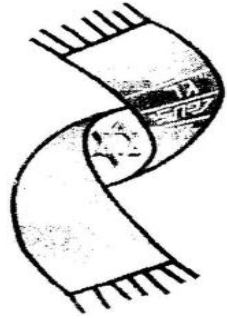

Our annual BINGO night will take place this winter. The date is to be determined.

Please keep MJC alive by supporting as many activities as you can. Check your email, the Message, and our new website, madisonjc.org, for further information. Phone trees will be going out every week. Watch for flyers.

Linda Parnes,
President

Wouldn't you like to be a Kiddush sponsor with good food and good friends, continuing a successful tradition? Madison Jewish Center's major function is to provide for our religious and spiritual needs. Social needs are often closely related to these. Joining with other members of the MJC community to sit down to a meal can give us religious, spiritual, and social benefits. Following Saturday services Madison Jewish Center has a weekly Kiddush luncheon, giving attendees quality time together.

Once again we would like to encourage as many people as possible to sponsor or co-sponsor these weekly luncheons. Comments from past participants range from, "great conversations", "opportunity to make good new friends", "no need to run home after services" to "hope these continue". There are levels of sponsorship to suit every budget. We are offering you the opportunity to donate $25.00 a month as a co-sponsor (or just $200.00 for the year) or $50.00 per month as a Platinum level co-sponsor (or just $300.00 per year), to our Kiddush Fund. If you sign up you will be listed in the monthly Message.

If you choose to be a full sponsor for a special occasion, the cost is $200.00 for the basic Kiddush (tuna, egg salad, bagels, cream cheese, cake, coffee and tea) for up to 40 people.

Please email your response to emg522@aol.com, or send your check or Zelle to the MJC office if you wish to be a regular or Platinum level sponsor for the 2025-26 year. Checks should be made out to Madison Jewish Center, (or you can use Zelle to info@madisonjc.org).

See you at services!

Thank you,

Luncheon Kiddush Committee

We are deeply grateful for the generosity and ongoing support of our regular sponsors, whose commitment makes our programs and community initiatives possible. Their dedication helps us celebrate milestones, honor achievements, and extend kindness throughout our community.

The Paul Podell Roof and Building Repair Fund

Paul devoted himself to Madison and worked tirelessly to make sure that Madison's bills were paid, that repairs were made, and that Madison was always open to all.

Our building is aging and is in desperate need of expensive repairs. Linda's message asked, "What would Paul do?" Paul would say we can't wait and must raise the funds needed ASAP.

Therefore the Podells have made a sizable donation to spearhead the roof repair fund. Join us in giving what you can to keep our roof from collapsing and to keep Madison the vibrant, welcoming synagogue it has always been.
